Who are we?

We are those who are in the wisdom stage of life (over 55) and desire to minister both to, and with God's people.

We offer members the chance to participate in the hospitality of the Church, connect the Church to the Community, and to serve in position of significance and leadership where needed.

Information for the Jonathan Young Recital (27 April at 5pm)

For those of you wondering how to get tickets for Jonathan's concert, one website you might try is PFW.EDU/tickets. You could also call the PFW box office @ 260-481-6555 or stop by the box office in what was Auer Music Center on the campus.

As you come into the campus off of St. Joe Rd, just follow the road around and it will take you where you want to go. Look to the right as you pass the parking garage. There is good parking on the circle at that building where you can park with time to go in and get tickets. The box office is to the right as you walk in the door.

Come See the Jersey Boys!

Keystones are going to the Civic Theater

Join the Keystones at the civic theater May 18th to see the production of Jersey Boys.

If you remember the music of the 60's you will enjoy the story of the four blue collar kids who became one of the greatest success stories in pop music. This is the story of Frankie Valli and The Four Seasons and the secret of a 40-year friendship as they work their way from the streets of New Jersey to the top of the pop charts.

Hear all their hits including "Sherry", "Big Girls Don't Cry", and "Dawn".

We have 32 tickets available and BECAUSE we have a group of over 25, the cost of each ticket is $20.00 instead of $34.00 (that's right 20 dollars).

Tickets will be available after the 11 AM classic service starting April 14th. You can also register online or call Bob Scott 260-615-2053.

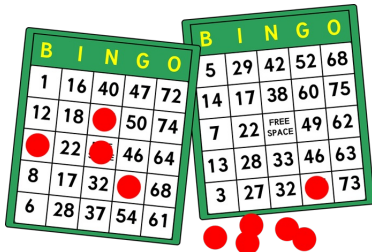

Since no dinner is available, we will have our own version of a tailgate party prior to the 7:30 performance. The Suzanna Wesley Kitchen and Joy Class classroom have been reserved from 5:15 to 6:30 PM. Just bring a snack of your choice to share and enjoy an hour + of fellowship and food. Keystones will provide the punch, plates, and utensils.

PLEASE NOTE: This play/musical is rated "R". There will be some Monthly Game Day at St. Joe UMC - Starting 15 May (10:30).

Val Miller is planning a monthly game day on the 2nd Wednesday of each month. The group can choose which games to play. The first game session is on 15 May (10:30 - 12:00) and will focus on Euchre!

Send a message to Val Miller to let her know you are interested.

Women's Bible Studies!

Cheryl will be leading a women's Bible study this spring called Take Courage- A Study of Haggai by Jennifer Rothschild. It is a 7 week study. The study will begin on April 4 and will meet from 9:30-11:15 am on Thursdays at St Joe UMC in room F11. To join the group, contact Cheryl Whitehill or call 403-0236 or 493-6146.

Deb will be leading a women's Bible Study this spring called Ephesians: Wholeness for a Broken World. This 11-week study begins April 11 and meets at the Jackson R Lehman YMCA in the Chapel from 8:30-9:45 am on Thursdays. Paul's letter to the Ephesians communicates the message of God's grace powerfully and succinctly. To join the group, contact Deb Morse or call 417-3533.

The Family Legacy Class has Started!!

We are charting our life memories and experiences, a decade at a time.

When we are finished we will have a TIME LINE filled with important dates, special memories and stories you and your family will cherish and appreciate!

This is intended to be an enjoyable and enlightening time.
-Pastor Steve Burris

All of us belong!

Do you have time to help members of our Church fully belong? The Caring Ministries team assists those of us whom are unable to easily participate.

Carol Terwilliger assists the Caring Ministry with volunteers that want to help. Please contact her at cacfterw1@aol.com. We hope you will let her know!
